Hey everyone! Do you see what I see? LAND!

Columbus: Voyage Journey

For the next few months, my crew and I kinda poked around the northeastern coastline stopping at places here and there. At some of the places we stopped, we met some of the locals. We even traded with them. All in all, it was a pretty good trip.

Is this all we're going to do - just go up and down the coast? BORING!

Luckily, we saw land not long after. We had finally found Asia. I was right!!

Who is that?

I don't know, but they sure do look funny.

I bet you all think all these explorers finding new land and rivers is pretty cool, don't you? Well guess what? They aren't the only ones who found new water and land in the new world. Listen up - because I've got a story to tell!

Columbus thought he had landed in Asia, but instead, he had actually landed in the Caribbean, on an island that is now part of the Bahamas. He claimed the land for Spain.

Columbus: Voyage Journey

After traveling a while we came across a river! You might know it as the Mississippi River. We crossed it and continued our exploration before heading back to the river.

Hey everyone! Do you see what I see? LAND!

Columbus: Voyage Journey

We traveled across a piece of land called the Isthmus of Panama. While we were exploring, I climbed a mountain and you'll never guess what I found! Another ocean! We saw the Pacific Ocean for the first time!

I, of course, claimed the entire ocean in the name of Spain! What a sight!

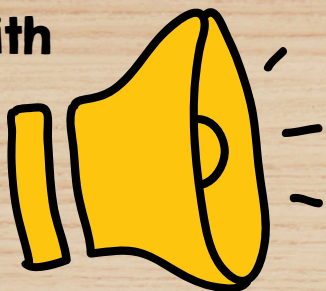

Wow! Is that a whole other ocean? Amazing!
